Please join us Wednesday July 27, 2005 at the American Numismatic Association Convention for our regular monthly meeting. The location will be room 2012 on the second floor of Moscone West. The business portion of our meeting will start shortly after 7:00PM with the regular meeting starting at 8:00PM. Note that the bourse floor will close at 6:30PM

Our speaker this month is Steven Caywood, a current student at the University of Utah. He has been interested in coins since he was 10. Some of his collecting interests include: Ancient coins (specifically Byzantine), Colonial Coins, and Early American Copper. He has been attending the ANA Summer Seminar for four years now and also has attended the 2002 ANA Convention in New York. He has exhibited many times and has written numerous articles on various numismatic subjects. His talk is entitled "A History of the Solidus: From the Roman Empire to the Renaissance

ANA convention activities of note

PCNS members will be very active in making this ANA convention a success. Several are on the organizing committee including, Michael S. Turrini, Numismatic Theater Chairman, Gordon Donnell, Patron chairman, Michael Wehner, honorary chairman and Mark W. Clark, who is volunteering at the local coin club table for several clubs.

Many of the speakers in the Numismatic Theatre and other events are Society members.

A Numismatic Walking Tour of San Francisco led by Michael Wehner. Departs at 3:00PM Thursday. Also see his article in the July 2005 Numismatist describing the sites in the tour.

The numerous PCNS member exhibits at the convention will be reported on next month.

There are many other activities including tours of the Granite Lady and the Federal Reserve. Numerous specialty clubs are meeting as well. And, of course, over 400 dealers in the largest coin show bourse in the world. Be sure to check the convention program or go online at www.money.org

Volunteers for the PCNS/SFCC/LNS table in the "local clubs section" at the convention are sorely needed. Even if you can spend only a brief time promoting the Society there, it will help. Please let Mark W. Clark or Michael Wehner know if you are available. Or just show up! The Society will have promotional materials for distribution as well as 1000th meeting medals and PCNS publications for sale at the convention table. Don Kagin has generously offered to pay for a years membership dues in a local coin club for new members. Your help in this unique opportunity will be greatly appreciated.

Gordon Donnell has made a generous donation in the name of the Society to the ANA. When you see the PCNS listed in the ANA program as a sponsor, remember to thank Gordon!
